

INTERNATIONAL MULTISPORT TOURNAMENT “GAMES OF THE FUTURE” IN ASTANA IN 2026

ACCREDITATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR NON-MEDIA PERSONNEL

1. Scope of Application

These Accreditation Terms and Conditions are established to ensure the proper and efficient implementation of the accreditation process for the international multisport tournament “Games of the Future” in Astana in 2026 (hereinafter - the Games of the Future). All accreditation badges are governed by these Terms and Conditions, as well as any other applicable laws and regulations.

These Accreditation Terms and Conditions do not apply to media representatives. Separate accreditation terms and conditions shall be established for media representatives.

Definitions

Accreditation The process of granting access to designated client groups to event venues and specific zones within such venues for the purpose of performing their functional duties, as well as preventing unauthorized persons from accessing these venues and their internal zones. The protection of transmitted data is carried out in accordance with the requirements of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated May 21, 2013 No. 94-V “On Personal Data and Their Protection.”

Accreditation Badge A personalized badge containing the holder’s personal data and photograph, intended for identification of the holder and for determining their access rights to the event venue based on their functional responsibilities.

Person Subject to Accreditation All event participants, guests, members of the Organizing Committee for the preparation and conduct of the Games, media representatives, service personnel, personnel of contractor organizations performing work during the installation/dismantling period, and other categories of individuals whose presence is required within the venue’s security perimeter.

Accredited Person All event participants, guests, members of the Organizing Committee for the preparation and

	conduct of the Games, media representatives, service personnel, personnel of contractor organizations performing work during the installation/dismantling period, and other categories of individuals whose presence is required within the venue's security perimeter, who have successfully passed the verification process.
Accreditation Zone	A restricted-access area within the security perimeter of the Games of the Future venue, access to which is granted according to the zoning scheme.
Client Leader	An employee of the Organizer or Rights Holder who represents the interests of the respective client group both with the Organizer/Rights Holder and in interactions between the Organizer/Rights Holder and other participants involved in the preparation and conduct of the Games. This person serves as the client group's point of contact with the Organizer and acts as the centre of expertise on matters concerning that client group.
Client Group	A group of individuals with similar functions and privileges who are involved in the organization and conduct of the Games of the Future or participate in the Games in other roles.
Controller-Steward	A person appointed by the Organizer responsible for superficial monitoring of order and compliance with behavioural rules; does not have the authority to conduct compulsory inspections.
Event/Games of the Future	The international multisport tournament "Games of the Future" in Astana in 2026.          Dates: July 29 - August 9, 2026          Location: Republic of Kazakhstan, Astana
Event Venue	An infrastructure venue that is, to varying degrees, associated with the event and/or intended for other related activities where the accreditation regime applies.
Organizer	Kazsportinvest JSC, responsible in the host country for the preparation and conduct of the Games of the Future.

Responsible
Person
(Supervisor)

A representative of the Responsible Organization in charge of accrediting persons participating in the preparation and conduct of the Games of the Future on behalf of that organization. Responsible for the completeness and timely submission of required data.

Authorized
Person

A person who has been granted written special authority by the Organizer within the framework of these Terms and Conditions.

Accreditation
Centre

A facility located near the Games of the Future venue, outside the venue's security perimeter, where matters related to accreditation are handled.

2. Accreditation Applications

2.1 Accreditation applications may be submitted either by an individual or by a Supervisor (Responsible Person) in charge of accreditation, who submits applications on behalf of a specific Client Group. Accreditations are issued to each person individually and are non-transferable.

2.2 Accreditation applications may be submitted exclusively online or by other means established by the Organizer. Only applications that are fully completed by the Applicant and submitted to the Organizer by the established deadline will be considered. Applications that are incomplete, unclear, or submitted late will not be considered.

2.3 Applicants must request accreditation strictly in accordance with the functions they will perform during the Event.

2.4 By completing the Application form, Applicants guarantee and declare that they have read and understood these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, have full knowledge of the rights and obligations arising from such accreditation, accept and agree to comply with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, and give the Organizer their consent to process personal data in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

2.5 Without limiting the foregoing in clause 2.4, Applicants who are also Supervisors responsible for accreditation guarantee and declare that they have provided these Accreditation Terms and Conditions to all persons on whose behalf they are submitting accreditation applications, that all such persons have read and accepted these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, and that they will ensure compliance with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions by such persons.

- 2.6 The Client Leader bears full responsibility for the completeness, accuracy, and number of persons submitted for accreditation on behalf of the Client Group in applications submitted by the Supervisor (Responsible Person).
- 2.7 The Client Leader guarantees and declares that they have read and understood these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, have full knowledge of the rights and obligations arising from such accreditation, and accept and agree to comply with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions.
- 2.8 The Client Leader guarantees and declares that they have read and understood these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, have full knowledge of the rights and obligations arising from such accreditation, and accept and agree to comply with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions.

3. Accreditation Procedure

- 3.1 All accreditation applications are subject to verification, after which the Organizer decides whether to grant the Applicant the corresponding accreditation (if approved). The Organizer reserves the right to reject any application. Decisions made by the Organizer are final and binding. The Organizer's decision is final under the circumstances, and Applicants whose accreditation is denied may not submit a repeat application.
- 3.2 All accreditation applications are subject to verification, and accreditation is granted by the Organizer only upon successful completion of such verification by the Applicant.
- 3.3 The Organizer shall duly notify all Applicants of the status of their Accreditation application by means of informational distribution, or by the Applicant independently tracking the status of their application in the Accreditation System.
- 3.4 The Organizer reserves the right to modify or restrict accreditation with appropriate notification to the Accredited Person.
- 3.5 Each Accredited Person is issued one accreditation badge, which must be visibly displayed at all times while on the Games venues. This accreditation badge is personal and non-transferable. Each Accredited Person is allowed access to the venue(s) and zones indicated on their accreditation badge. The accreditation badge may be obtained upon presentation of an identity document (birth certificate, national ID of the Republic of Kazakhstan, passport of the Republic of Kazakhstan, foreign passport, stateless person ID, refugee ID, residence permit of a foreigner in Kazakhstan, in accordance with the requirements of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated January 29, 2013 No. 73-V "On Identity Documents," as indicated in the application form). Upon receipt of the accreditation badge, the Accredited Person must sign a confirmation of receipt.

3.6 The Organizer, in agreement with the Employer, reserves the right to unilaterally revoke the accreditation of any Accredited Person. Accreditation may be revoked in any of the following cases: if any changes were made to the accreditation badge (except changes made by Organizer representatives); and/or if the Accredited Person fails to comply with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions. Additionally, the Organizer reserves the right to unilaterally revoke the accreditation of any Accredited Person if the circumstances that qualified the person for accreditation no longer exist. Upon revocation of accreditation, the accreditation badge becomes invalid, and the Accredited Person loses the right to access the venues. The Accredited Person must immediately return the badge to the Accreditation Centre.

3.7 In the event of loss or theft of an accreditation badge, the Accredited Person must report it to the Accreditation Centre within 24 hours of discovering the loss or theft. In such cases, the Organizer will decide whether to issue a replacement accreditation badge.

4. Use of Accreditation

4.1 Applicants must use accreditation strictly in accordance with the functions they will perform during the Event. Access to Event venues is granted only upon presentation of a valid accreditation badge. Accredited Persons present at the venues must always display their accreditation badge in a visible location. To remain on the Games venues, Accredited Persons must comply with the safety requirements set out in Article 5 of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, as well as any security rules applicable at the Event venues.

4.2 ALL Accredited Persons acknowledge that they move around the Event venues at their own risk.

4.3 All persons present at the Games venues are strictly prohibited from using, carrying, or storing items and materials of an advertising, commercial, political, religious, or discriminatory nature, offering for sale, selling, or carrying such items with the intent to sell (including beverages, food, tobacco products, souvenirs, clothing, or advertising/commercial items), except where prior written permission has been obtained from the Organizer. All such items may be seized or temporarily confiscated by Controllers-Stewards and/or other authorized personnel.

4.4 ALL accreditation badges remain the property of the Organizer. In the event of a violation of any of these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, accreditation badges must be immediately returned to the Accreditation Centre (or to an authorized representative) upon request of the Organizer or any person authorized by the Organizer.

4.5 Accredited Persons are not permitted to sell or otherwise transfer their accreditation, nor to share it with third parties. Accreditation badges may not be used for any commercial purposes.

4.6 Smoking (including vaping) is permitted only in specially designated outdoor smoking areas, if such areas are provided.

5. Security

5.1 Accredited Persons must comply with the instructions of the Organizer's security personnel and any persons authorized to issue such instructions at the Venue. Each Accredited Person is required, upon request, to present a valid Accreditation Card and an identification document (birth certificate, citizen ID of the Republic of Kazakhstan, passport of the Republic of Kazakhstan, foreign passport, stateless person ID, refugee ID, or residence permit of a foreign national in the Republic of Kazakhstan, in accordance with the requirements of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated January 29, 2013 No. 73-V "On Identity Documents"), allow personal searches and inspections of any bags or other containers belonging to the Accredited Person, accept the confiscation of prohibited items, and follow all other instructions issued by Controllers-Stewards, the Organizer's security personnel, and/or any other authorized persons. Accredited Persons are also obliged, upon request, to provide an explanation of how, from whom, and where they obtained their Accreditation Card.

5.1 All Accredited Persons must, at all times while present at the Event venues, conduct themselves in a manner that does not disrupt order, endanger public safety, or interfere with or disturb other Accredited Persons and/or other individuals.

5.2 All Accredited Persons must occupy only the designated zones indicated on their accreditation badges and must access such zones only through the entrances specified in the venue zoning plan, unless otherwise instructed by the Organizer.

5.3 Access to Event venues may be denied to any person visibly under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other psychotropic substances, or to any person displaying aggressive, dangerous, or otherwise disorderly behaviour. Access may also be denied to any person whose appearance or conduct may negatively affect the public image of the Event.

5.4 Failure to comply with the requirements of this section constitutes grounds for revocation of accreditation in accordance with clause 3.6 and entails the consequences set forth in Section 7 of these Terms and Conditions.

6. Audio and Visual Materials

Display of Images

Audio and Video Recording

6.1 All Accredited Persons are prohibited from recording (using any devices, including mobile phones), transmitting, and/or distributing (through any media, including radio, television, the Internet, or mobile data transmission devices) sounds (including commentary) and/or images (moving or still) from the Event for any purposes other than personal use. They are also prohibited from assisting other individuals or organizations in carrying out such activities, except where such actions are solely for personal use.

7. Consequences of Violating the Accreditation and Conditions

7.1 An Accredited Person whose actions do not comply with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, or whose accreditation badge was not obtained in accordance with these Terms and Conditions, will be denied access to the Event venue and/or zone, or will be removed from the Event venue and/or zone to which they had been granted access during the Event. In such cases, the accreditation badge will be confiscated.

7.2 If the Organizer has reasonable grounds to believe that an Accredited Person is not complying with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions, the accreditation badge of such Accredited Person will be confiscated and declared invalid.

7.3 In the event of revocation of accreditation, a repeat application for accreditation will not be accepted.

7.4 The Organizer reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to employ other legal remedies in relation to such Accredited Person.

8. Indemnification

Accredited Persons are responsible for the use of all accreditation badges issued to them and shall indemnify and hold the Organizer harmless from any liability, losses, or obligations related to such accreditation badges or arising from failure to comply with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions.

9. Data processing

By submitting an application for accreditation, Applicants grant the Organizer permission to store, transfer, and otherwise use the personal data provided in the application form for the following purposes:

- Processing accreditation applications and issuing accreditation badges;
- Conducting background checks or other security screenings.

In this regard, Applicants acknowledge and agree that such personal data may be shared with relevant government authorities and/or authorized institutions and organizations. The data shall not be used, processed, stored, or transferred by the Organizer for purposes outside the scope set forth in these Terms and Conditions.

10. Force Majeure

The Organizer reserves the right to make changes to the timing, dates, and locations of the venues in the event of unforeseen circumstances. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, force majeure events, security considerations, or decisions made by any competent authority.

11. Contact Information

Information Requests

Any general inquiries should be sent to the following email address: accreditation@kazsportinvest.kz

Supervisors (Responsible Persons)

Any inquiries from Supervisors in accordance with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions should be sent to the following email address: accreditation@kazsportinvest.kz

12. Severability and Amendments

12.1 The Organizer reserves the right to make reasonable amendments to these Accreditation Terms and Conditions without providing justification.

13. Original text

These Accreditation Terms and Conditions are prepared in Kazakh and Russian and translated into English. In the event of any discrepancy between the Kazakh/Russian versions and the translated text, the English version shall prevail and shall be used for the interpretation and application of these Terms and Conditions.

14. Dispute Resolution

In all cases provided for by the applicable legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the parties shall seek to resolve any disputes relating to rights and obligations arising from these Accreditation Terms and Conditions through mutual agreement. If a dispute cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, the exclusive place of jurisdiction shall be the city of Astana, except where otherwise provided by law. Notwithstanding the above, and in accordance with applicable law, the Organizer reserves the right to initiate legal proceedings for non-compliance with these Accreditation Terms and Conditions in a court at the place of registration or residence of the Accredited Party. If you want, I can also do a quick consistency check of the whole document (legal tone, repeated terms, etc.) to make it fully polished.